THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. - Jn 3:17

Looking for Volunteers!

"I am hoping to find a few experienced people who can help me paint. The rectory needs painting inside. I plan to get a quote on repairing and painting the deco roof shingles that circle the house. The carpets downstairs unfortunately can't be salvaged. I am getting a quote to replace downstairs ground level carpeting and hopefully the office carpets as well. I will be looking for some volunteers to help remove them. The gardens at Our Lady of Good Counsel need some attention, and I'm sure Eddie Pascua and Jim Sheeley could use some help with the great work they are doing at Most Blessed Sacrament. I am also looking for some volunteers to do some spring cleaning in the Churches. Please see the Volunteer Form at the back of both Churches to facilitate organizing this most important effort."- Fr. Martin

My First Week

"I wish to thank everyone for a warm welcome as I begin my service as Pastor of our Collaborative. I've met with the pastoral council and I am very excited and look forward to working with them to help us all grow in our faith and service to our God. As you are reading this, my bed has arrived and I should be unpacking and settled in upstairs. I am very grateful to Jose Luis Bengoa for his many hours of hard work repairing the walls from water damage and painting the bedroom and taking care of many details that needed attention. It is like a new room! I also want to thank Eddie Pascua for his great help with cleaning the Churches and landscaping."-Fr. Martin

Please register and pay as soon as possible, but before August 1st
Consider serving your Parish as a Catechist next year, we are seeking additional help!

Today we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity where we recognize the Trinity of God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit. Last week at Pentecost the Holy Spirit came down tangibly on the disciples and the Blessed Mother as they gathered in Jerusalem after the ascension of Christ into heaven. The Spirit sent from God as another advocate gave them the courage and the strength to go out into all the world and proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ. All but one of the disciples who experienced this outpouring of the Holy Spirit suffered greatly and eventually were martyred for their belief in Christ and profession of the one true faith. The second person of the Trinity, Jesus Christ, came to this earth born as a child in His humanity and suffered and died upon the cross in the fullness of His human nature. We can see in scripture accounts concerning the life of Christ, that the Spirit was always present and seen by the disciples and others at the most important events in the earthly ministry of Jesus. The Holy Spirit that came down on the disciples at Pentecost is still very much present in the Church today. Whenever the Cardinals gather in Rome to elect a new Pope they process into the Sistine Chapel singing “Veni Sancte Spiritus (which translates to Come, Holy Spirit) to call down the guidance and power of the Spirit in their discernment of a new leader for the Church. The liturgical color, and the one most frequently associated with the Holy Spirit is red, which is often used and worn at the celebration of Confirmation. This red that Cardinals are clothed with shows, as an outward sign, that they are willing to shed their blood if required in defense of the Catholic faith and the Church. Let us continue to pray this week that the Holy Spirit will come with power upon our new collaborative and be with us in this time of financial difficulty. Our parish bears the name of the Holy Trinity, let this serve as a strong reminder to all of us to continue to work together and be one in the Lord. Through our active participation and prayer, we can be a stronger and greater example of the love of God to all we encounter. May God bless you this week!
